Open Game

Alex is a young teacher who likes getting involved in innovative projects. For that reason, the Rector of her University asks her for a mission: discovering and promoting the use of Open Education to other teachers at the University. Alex starts the task with with passion and enthusiasm and tries to spread these feelings to all the actors: teachers, students, visitants and staff. While she discovers all the aspects involved in Open Education, she shares with you her findings and gives you the opportunity to show your achievements for each of the competences. This is a win-win adventure... play now!
